DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The Abstract of the disclosure is objected to for the following: on line 5 the phrase, "the two sensor is accurately represents," should read --two sensors accurately represents--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 6-10 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claims 1-5. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dearth et al. (4,159,874).

As for claims 11-12, Dearth in an optical property measurement system and method disclose the following: a specular light sensor (Fig. 3, 11); a first light sensor (Fig. 3, 12); a signal ratio of the specular sensor intensity and a detected first light sensor intensity is determinative of paper optical parameters determinative of type of paper (col. 26, lines 40-65).

Art Unit: 2877

As for flux capability, Dearth is silent. However, he teaches that the effective viewing of the transmitted light is 15/16 inches and teaches the reflected light path is coincident with an optical axis with an aperture of 7/8 inches (col. 5, lines 55-67; col. 6, lines 1-30). Therefore, it would be obvious to one skilled in the art at the time that the specular light sensor has a lower light flux capability, for it has an aperture smaller than the first light sensor for transmitted light.

As for claim 13, Dearth discloses everything as above (see claim 11). However, he does not mention the distances between the light source and the sensors being at equal radii, an optimal distance and arrangement. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to have the distance between the source and sensors be at equal radii, since it has been held that discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art. In re Boesch, 617 F.2d 272, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA 1980) In addition, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the sensors and source at equal radii from each other since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70

As for claim 14, Dearth discloses everything as above (see claim 13). In addition, Dearth demonstrates the sensors and the illumination source are in a semicircular arrangement (see Fig. 3).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-5, 15-25 are allowed.

As to claim 1, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious in a media manipulation apparatus a determination unit to determine a media type of the media based on a signal ratio of a detected specular light sensor intensity and a detected first light sensor intensity, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claims 1-5.

As to claim 15, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious in a media type detector when a signal of a detected first light sensor intensity falls within a linear characteristic range of the first light sensor, a signal ratio of a detected specular light sensor intensity and the detected first light sensor signal is determinative of a media type of the media, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claims 15-17.

As to claim 18, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious in a media type detection method determining a media type of the media based on a signal ratio of the specular light sensor intensity and at least the first light sensor intensity, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 18-21.

As to claim 22, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious in a media type detection method determining if one of the first and second light intensities does not fall within a linear region of a characteristic curve of a light sensor, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claims 22-25.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

U.S. Patent 4,750,140 to Asano et al.

U.S. Patent 5,139,339 to Courtney et al.

U.S. Patent 5,754,213 to Whritenor

U.S. Patent 6,590,223 to Chelvayohan

Fax/Telephone Numbers

If the applicant wishes to send a fax dealing with either a proposed amendment or a discussion with a phone interview, then the fax should:

1) Contain either a statement "DRAFT" or "PROPOSED AMENDMENT" on the fax cover sheet; and

2) Should be unsigned by the attorney or agent.

This will ensure that it will not be entered into the case and will be forwarded to the examiner as quickly as possible.

Papers related to the application may be submitted to Group 2800 by Fax transmission. Papers should be faxed to Group 2800 via the PTO Fax machine located in Crystal Plaza 4.
